9-Year-Old Is New Women's Typical Turkey Record Holder for West Virginia

A young hunter made history by eclipsing the old state record by more than three points.

The National Wild Turkey Federation has made it official, awarding the title and record of Best Overall Eastern Typical by a Female Hunter (West Virginia) to nine-year-old Peyton Mellinger.

Peyton's Tom, which scored a combined total of 77.8750 points, eclipsed the previous record (a bird taken in 2016) by more than 3 points. Peyton's bird had some impressive characteristics, including a 10.5 inch beard and 1.5 inch spurs.

Congrats on an awesome bird, Peyton, and for taking the title of #1 in the state of West Virginia.

Turkey Hunting Photo Contest

We're giving you the change to win $500! When you're out in the woods this year, we want to see pictures from your hunting experience, not just prize shots. Think outside of the box. Pictures of the scenery around you, the sunrise or you taking your shot. The possibilities are endless.

HERE'S HOW THE CONTEST WORKS:

All pictures must be received by April 21, 2018 to be entered into this contest. Bobby will be judging the photos and will choose one winner based upon the quality and individuality of the photo. The contest is for BTB members only. You can register on our website for free. One entry per BTB member.

To enter the contest, post your picture on our Beyond The Backyard Facebook page and include your name and the hashtag #BTBTurkeyHunt. We also want you to share the photo to your own page or your parent's page.
